

COMP AM Article 68

07.10.2013

Article 68

Procedure

1. The European Data Protection Board shall take decisions by a simple majority of its members, unless otherwise provided in its rules of procedure.
2. The European Data Protection Board shall adopt its own rules of procedure and organise its own operational arrangements. In particular, it shall provide for the continuation of exercising duties when a member's term of office expires or a member resigns, for the establishment of subgroups for specific issues or sectors and for its procedures in relation to the consistency mechanism referred to in Article 57.